
MEDICAL ELASTIC PRODUCTS

- Medical elastic products made in Latvia: compression socks, back belts, joint orthoses.

- TONUS ELAST products are created to help cope with health-related challenges and promote well-being, allowing for the continuation of daily routines and duties.

The product range includes compression socks, products for joint and back support for existing complaints or for preventive use under heavy physical strain. Also highly appreciated and widely applicable is the back-warming belt with angora and merino wool.

The full range of products can be explored on the website. www.tonuselast.com
